About the Faculty Development Program

Of late the world is encountering unprecedented miseries and unanticipated challenges consequent to COVID-19 pandemic. While global health and economy has crippled, destructive traces of the disastrous pandemic is getting more prominent in the face of the world educational system calling for resorting to new educational means and modes, policies and platforms etc. While appreciation of equal access to education and inclusive educational policy has been one of the celebrated accomplishments of the contemporary human society, today right to education of millions of children stands scattered. The tale of sorrow is equally true in context of higher education, special and super-special education as well as academic research. While the havoc of COVID-19 pandemic shocked humanity itself, time has come when every stakeholder of the society needs to stand united for humane causes catering all possible innovations.

In pursuance of this holistic theme, the N.J.Y. Centre for Post-Graduate Legal Research, ICFAI Law School, ICFAI University Tripura, has dedicated its One Week Faculty Development-2021 Program, as a common platform of academic congress beholding renowned and reputed legal luminaries, academicians and legal professionals from across eight nations to address young zealous law masters, professionals, academicians, teachers, practitioners, scholars etc., about the most appropriate and appreciable approach of legal education and legal research in their respective legal domain of specialization.
