

Call for Tech & Press Fellows by Oxford, NUJS-Gold Medalist Alumna for Non-Profit Initiatives

Ms PRIYA GARG

ASSISTANT LECTURER, JINDAL GLOBAL LAW SCHOOL

BA LLB (H) NUJS, KOLKATA (12 GOLD MEDALS),
BCL (LLM), UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD (UK)
FORMER ELECTED MEMBER, THE OXFORD UNION
UGC NET (LAW)

E Mail: Priya.nujs.oxford@gmail.com

See Ms Garg on:
The Corporate House (one of the NPO initiatives by Ms Garg): here
University of Oxford, UK's website: here
Jindal Global Law School's website: here
LinkedIn: here

ABOUT THE TWO NON-PROFIT INITIATIVES

Ms Garg is working towards conceptualizing two NGOs: We, The Humans™ and The Corporate House™. Both are registered as trusts. The goal of the former trust is to promote human rights and social welfare. The objective of the latter NGO is to work for the advancement of corporate law and scholarship.

APPLY BY: JULY 16TH 2021

ABOUT VACANCY (ONLINE MODE)

Tech Fellow (total 4 vacancies: 2 for each of the following categories):

Category A: Website Manager (to build/manage a Bluhost website of two of our NGOs)

Category B: Video Editor (to assist with editing videos for our Youtube channel)

Press Fellow (total 2 vacancies):

To assist with media release, managing social media account (linkedin, facebook and twitter page)

DURATION

3 - 6 months. The fellow would be expected to dedicate 20-30 hours per month. There would be reasonable flexibility to allow for the fellow's commitments such as examination and internship.

DESIRABLE SKILLS

- Prior experience in the relevant field needs to be highlighted in the application.
- Good communication, language and editing skills
- Ability to pay attention to detail
- Time management skills

PROCESS FOR SELECTION

Kindly fill in your application here.

The opportunity should enable the students to hone and apply their innovation, leadership and communication skills as the students would work under the personal mentorship of Ms Garg.

The perks for the vacancies are non-monetary. The researchers may seek benefits such as mentorship, experience certificate, opportunity to attend courses offered by Ms Garg at her own initiative for law and management students and/or possibly a letter of recommendation.