& RESEARCH IN LAW

Monday, 12th July - Saturday, 17th July 2021

Sharda University, a Leader in the field of Higher Education, has taken the initiative to increase and improve faculty standards across all levels, especially in the area of 'Outcome Based Teaching-learning Methods and Research'.

During the present Covid19 pandemic situation also Sharda University has been at the forefront in delivering quality education through virtual mode and the same has been recognised recently when it became one the leading Universities in India to receive the prestigious QS I-Gauge E-Lead Certificate for excellence in online education. Also, in India Today Ranking of Best Law School 2020, School of Law, Sharda University has secured 28th Rank in its very first participation.

Continuing with the same commitment to quality education, the School of Law, Sharda University, is organising an Online Faculty Development Programme from Monday, 12th July to Saturday, 17th July 2021. This Online Faculty Development Programme is specifically designed to discuss, deliberate and come up with 'Outcome-based Teaching-Learning Methods and Research in Law: The Way Forward'. The early-career researchers, academicians, legal experts, and other participants will have a great opportunity to learn from the esteemed panel of experts who shall be delivering expert talks on various topical issues related to outcome-based teaching-learning methods and research in law. The purpose of this programme is to provide an opportunity for distinguished scholars/ researchers/teachers in India to engage with the young faculty members and share their experiences and perspectives relating to outcome-based teaching and research. The main focus of the FDP shall be the deliberation on intricacies of law teaching in general and research in particular while identifying the gaps and suggesting future reforms therein.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

---

1. Provide an understanding about outcome-based teaching-learning methods & research in law.
2. Acquaint the participants with the intricacies of law and legal research.
3. Train the early career researchers, young academicians, and other participants to upgrade their knowledge and skills in outcome-based teaching and research.
4. Provide in-depth understanding about teaching pedagogy.
5. Provide an opportunity to participants to deliberate and learn about the challenges facing legal education and research in the present virtual era.
6. Train the early career researchers, young academicians, and other participants regarding the use of technology in teaching and research.

PROPOSED OUTCOMES

1. The participants will be able to explore outcome-based methods of teaching and learning.
2. The participants will be able to identify upcoming research areas across various specializations and fields of research.
3. The participants will be able to come out with quality research work published in reputed journals at the national and international level with the guidance of experts.
4. The knowledge acquired from experts will be percolated to the students and ultimately benefit them.
5. The participants shall be able to appreciate the challenges facing the teaching-learning methods and research in law and will be able to prepare themselves better for the same.
6. The participants would be able to get in-depth knowledge and training regarding the use of technology during this pandemic Covid-19 for outcome-based methods of teaching and learning.
